HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend it in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Thomas [illegible], heretofore considered the best in use.

We respectfully refer to the following [illegible]

Having examined the New Patent Sinch or Belly Band Fastener invented by C. H. Horne of Astoria, Oregon, we take pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is one of the easiest, quickest and best methods of tightening a saddle girth that has ever been in use. It also has an advantage over all others in use in being able to tighten your saddle girth without dismounting.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 24

Congressional

WASHINGTON, March [illegible]. In the House Stark weather introduced a bill [illegible] [illegible] Gen. M[illegible] [illegible].

Scofield from the Naval Committee reported a bill for the removal of the Brooklyn Navy Yard; recommitted.

The Secretary of the Treasury is asked for a detailed statement of the $110,000 appropriated in 1862, for the [illegible] of Freedmen.

The Sutro Tunnel bill was discussed and tabled, 126 against 41.

The Committee on Appropriations reported the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill. It also appropriates $1,110,000 for the same purpose as last year. It was made the special order for Tuesday.

The Speaker presented a special message from the President on the subject of American commerce, declaring it a national humiliation that this country is now compelled to pay from twenty to thirty million dollars annually, exclusive of passage money, for freight, which should be shared by American citizens with the people of other nations, and urging an early consideration of the subject. He believes that a direct money subsidy was less liable to abuse than an indirect subsidy, and he recommends the passage of two bills reported by the Select Committee which were referred to the Select Committee on the decline of American Commerce and ordered printed.

The House resumed the consideration of the Polygamy bill. After a debate by Sargent, Ward and Axtell, Schenck moved to reconsider.

Railroad Accident—Fire

CONCORD, March 22. A train on the Connecticut river and Passumsic railroad was thrown from the track to-day by a broken rail. Two cars were thrown down an embankment and ten passengers were injured, but none killed.

MILWAUKEE, March 23. The repair shops and mill on St. Paul railroad, with four engines and six box cars were burned to-day. Loss $10,000; mostly insured.

Affairs in Tennessee

NASHVILLE, March 23. Numerous building contracts in Nashville have been suspended on account of the proposed Congressional interference in the government of the State. Governor Senter declares he is opposed to such interference and has called upon the President for military aid, merely to be prepared for an emergency.

Democratic Nomination

TOLEDO, March 23.—W. D. Hill, of Defiance county, was nominated as Congressman for the Tenth District by the Democratic Convention held here to-day.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

The Democratic State Convention

ALBANY, March 24.—The Democratic State Convention met here yesterday at 10 o'clock. Geo. L. Curry, of Clackamas county, was elected President; W. E. Howell, of Lane county, Secretary, and W. A. Stanard, Assistant Secretary. Most of the day was consumed by reports of committees. At 7 P. M. the Committee on Resolutions, J. F. Miller, of Marion county, Chairman, made their report. The 8th resolution was for repudiation, which was met by strong opposition, but for a while the repudiators appeared to have the majority. After considerable discussion the resolution was so amended as to meet the entire views of the delegates, and was carried unanimously. The 8th resolution now simply favors an equitable adjustment of our bonded debt. The Convention adjourned till this morning at 10 A. M., when it proceeded at once to the nomination of Congressman and State officers. J. H. Slater, of Baker county, was nominated by acclamation; L. F. Grover, of Marion county, for Governor; S. F. Chadwick, of Douglas, for Secretary; Lewis Fleischner, of Multnomah, for Treasurer, and Patterson, publisher of the Oregon Herald, of Multnomah county, for State Printer.

The Democratic Platform

ALBANY, March 24.—The Democracy of the State of Oregon, through their delegates in Convention assembled, in accordance with long established usage, proclaim the following: 1st. That they are unalterably attached to the principles of our Republic as expounded by its founders, and the paramount object of their organization shall ever be to uphold and maintain those principles inviolate.

2d. That they hold those political partizans who, occupying positions of trust and claiming to be representatives of the people, have usurped the authority confided to them, and maliciously trampled under foot our sacred bill of rights, made civil law subordinate to military rule, perverted the functions of Government, and endeavored to concentrate its powers in the hands of an oligarchy, wholly disregarding the will and wishes of their constituents, and insidiously endeavored to disparage, debase and stigmatize the once proud title of American citizenship as enemies to the best interests of this Commonwealth.

3d. That the so-called reconstruction measures attempted to be carried out by the present party in power is a nefarious scheme, revolutionary in design, treasonable in execution—one which, if acquiesced in as a rightful exercise of authority, will establish a most dangerous precedent and imperil the safety and perpetuity of our form of Government; and that the present Senators in the Congress of the United States from this State, in supporting those measures, have misrepresented the wishes, and outraged the sentiments of the people of Oregon.

4th. That the systematic efforts made by that party to extend to the African, the Indian and the Chinaman all the civil and political rights and privileges enjoyed by the white race evinces a design on the part of its leaders to destroy the high estimate placed upon that invaluable heritage and render despotism less objectionable and more easy of accomplishment.

5th. That the ratification of the recently proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, extending the right of suffrage to the benighted negro and Indian, and which [illegible] the [illegible] the heathenish [illegible] human [illegible] irregular, arbitrary and unlawful [illegible] they most earnestly protest against the passage by the United States Congress of the pending act designed to enforce this [illegible] illegal provision.

6th. That they urge and entreat a repeal of the recent treaty concluded between the United States and China, which guarantees to the latter nation such extensive privileges and immunities with no corresponding benefits to American citizens, and offers to its hordes of semi-barbarians such favorable inducements to swarm in upon us, occupy our mineral and agricultural districts, create competition with our laboring masses, establish [illegible] [illegible] disgusting rites, ceremonies and practices in our towns, discourage and repel the immigration of our own race, decrease the white [illegible] retard thrift, impede the advancement of education and enlightenment, abstract [illegible] and send away our valuable mineral wealth and [illegible] a party which will sustain [illegible] [illegible] but which [illegible] an [illegible] as unworthy the support of white men.

7th. That in the management of [illegible] affairs they urge a judicial [illegible] principles of [illegible] political economy [illegible] encouragement of agricultural, mineral, manufacturing [illegible] [illegible] able protection to the labor and the capital, and a faithful exercise of a system of rigid retrenchment [illegible] ministered for the people and not against them, in protecting the rights and interests [illegible] fostering monopolies [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of privileged [illegible] by preferring one class [illegible] [illegible] taxpayers while conferring [illegible] immunities upon the holders of [illegible] serves no other name than legalized public plunder.

8th. That the continual payment of the semi-annual interest on the bonded debt of the United States without abatement, together with their enormous expenses for which the people are taxed, make a burden too intolerable to be borne without an effort to find some speedy means of relief, that the amount of the bonded debt was increased more than two fold by the venal, illegal and un[illegible]

[illegible]

9th. That the levy of the present [illegible] manifested by its proposition to secure between [illegible] by bond holders payment [illegible] indebtedness growing out of the late [illegible] United States of Treasury notes when worth less than one half their coin value, after the holders thereof have received [illegible] that at the same time leaving the [illegible] unfortunate soldiers, their wives, children and other kindred to be paid in a depreciated currency, exhibits a spirit of injustice unsurpassed in the history of class legislation, and fully demonstrates the existence of a design on the part of the moneyed aristocracy of the country to [illegible] the establishment of a policy having the aggrandizement of the rich at the expense of the poor, a policy which has for its object the aggregation of wealth, opulence and power on the one hand, and misery, poverty and slavery on the other, a policy fitted only to a monarchical form of government.

10th. That the Democracy of this State [illegible] as heretofore are strenuous advocates of a tariff for purposes of revenue only; that the principle of protection for the sake of protection is at war with the diversified interests of the people of the States, and experience has shown its tendency to aggrandize a class in the community at the expense and to the injury of the producing and laboring millions, taxing their industry equally in violation of the authority of the Constitution and of the great principle that should govern this people in their intercourse with the family of nations.

11. That we favor the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States rescinding the 14th and 15th amendments.

12th. That we are in favor of a liberal policy being pursued by the Legislature of this State in the bestowal of the land grants to her for the purpose of public improvements.

13th. That the Governor and resigning members of the Legislature, in engaging in a conspiracy to overthrow the State government, collect large amounts of coin as revenue to be drawn from the business and hard earnings of the people to be idle in the Treasury or to be the subject of gambling speculations in warrants, bonds and other securities, were guilty of a high crime against the Government of Oregon, rendering them unworthy the respect and confidence of the people, or of being further entrusted with the administration of the Government; and while we thus condemn the action of the Governor and resigning members we unhesitatingly approve and endorse the conduct of the Democratic members in earnestly and faithfully striving to restore and maintain the organization of the Legislature and provide for the due administration of the laws.

Suicide at Corvallis

CORVALLIS, March 24.—Charles Wagner, a saddler, attempted to commit suicide by taking opium at a restaurant in this place last night. Recovery is doubtful at present.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

VICTORIA, March 22.—The Charybdis will not go to San Francisco for repairs. A coffer dam is being built at Esquimalt, where the necessary repairs will be done.

In the Legislature yesterday a vote was taken on the question of responsible government under the Confederation. The popular vote stood 6 to 3 in favor of it, but it was lost on the entire vote, it being 150 to 6.

THE WEST

A bill is pending in the California Legislature proposing to foster and stimulate iron manufacture in that State by a bounty of $12 per ton for the first 5,000 tons per annum.

The San Francisco Bulletin says that there have never been but two cargoes of grain shipped from that port in bulk. Two shipments of barley were made some years ago to Australia. But the risks were so great and the saving was so small that the experiments were on the whole unsatisfactory and have never been repeated. Shippers are disinclined to take the extra hazards; marine surveyors hesitate to assent to this manner of loading grain for long voyages, and shipowners themselves dislike to risk their ships with cargoes in bulk.

County affairs at White Pine (Nev.) must be conducted loosely, according to the annexed reference of the Inland Empire to the Grand Jury report. It is sweeping in its denunciations of some officers; others are highly praised. The County Commissioners receive a terrible excoriation. Justice Heisel and Constable Martin, of his Court, have not escaped. The physician of the County Hospital is denounced as a "monster"; the City Marshal of Hamilton is declared not to be fit to hold the office he occupies, and other officers are as roughly handled.

A touching exhibition of wifely grief and devotion was manifested by a bereaved digger squaw in Calaveras county, Cal., recently. Less than the [illegible] squaw [illegible] aboriginal refinement of feeling was displayed in the relation of the incident, as it appeared in the Chronicle of the 14th inst. It reads: "An Indian residing near Jenny Lind succumbed recently to the twelve acting [illegible] of the medicine man [illegible] his departure for the happy hunting ground. Mrs. L[illegible], overwhelmed with grief and sorrow by her irreparable loss, put an end to her consumption of acorns by the application of a dose of shotgun. They were both burned upon the same pyre, and it is to be hoped that their re-united spirits [illegible] a sphere in which the buck cannot shirk his part of the work."

The Sacramento Record of the 11th inst. says: Every train over the Central Pacific road from the east brings a large number of immigrants, the majority of whom are from the Western States and of the farming class, who intend to make this State their future home. Saturday a passenger train brought two large carloads yesterday; the same [illegible] at the depot on Saturday [illegible] numbering seventeen, who represented three generations, from the white haired grandfather and grandmother to the prattling baby in [illegible] They were from Iowa, [illegible] the middle farming class, and intended [illegible] Colusa [illegible] railroad. "Why I [illegible]" "Are you [illegible]" "Quite certain." "Then I reckon I am mistaken, but your ears deceive me." "My ear. Why how could that be?" "All my child[illegible] you have long years, sir, very long years; there are but three classes of this species, sir; my child[illegible] the rabbits and the donkeys. You are not a rabbit." The outraged judge could endure no more, but shouted at the top of his voice to the officers to take him down. "Oh, sir! I hear you bray!" and the poor fellow was sent to the asylum.

LETTER FROM ALBANY

[illegible]

ALBANY, March 23, 1870.

The stage going north leaves here at 5 A. M. and the convention will assemble at that hour [illegible] it will be impossible to give [illegible] proceedings by mail to-day.

The attendance of regularly elected delegates is [illegible] and [illegible] few proxies [illegible] [illegible] with seven delegates [illegible] represented by two men, and [illegible] proxies from east of the mountains and one or two from Multnomah; the regular delegates are present.

[illegible] the present hour it is impossible to tell what the Convention will do, as there is evidently a terrible scramble for nominations, and about every third delegate one meets is a candidate. As is customary, their boastings are loud, and a goodly number of the members being under the influence of the miserable whisky which the moral town of Albany furnishes, "brag and blow" with that assurance which is characteristic of them, though an undertone which is [illegible] suggests that this sanguine expression is made for the same purpose for which the boy whistled as he went through the church yard, "to keep his courage up."

With the delegates from eastern Oregon, Grover seems to be ahead of all other candidates for Governor, and his friends express the opinion very confidently that he will be nominated on the first ballot. I consider this by no means certain as yet, for there are Chapman, Avery, Whiteaker, and others, who each have some friends in the Convention. From observations, however, we are inclined to think that he will be the nominee at last, and the leader of the Knights of the Horny hand in Portland, as well as his supporters, will find that the "wool has been pulled over their eyes" by some of those who represent them. This has no allusion to the woolen factory at Salem, though some of Chapman's friends will consider Grover's nomination a settlement of the capital and labor question adverse to the interests of the latter. Slater seems to be in the lead for the nomination for Congressman, though his supporters fear that Harrison may "break," as he is likely to be beaten for the Judgeship in the Fifth District by McArthur, of Baker. For Secretary of State the candidates are plentiful, and no probabilities point with any degree of certainty to this or that man. For Treasurer and State Printer the same uncertainty exists.

What the platform will be must be judged by the former expressions of the leaders, for the few men who do the planning and wire-working for the party will fix that up to suit themselves, and will likely follow the advice given by Judge Strong to a knot of delegates in our hearing at the hotel last night: "Give us a platform nobody can understand."

The [illegible] T. Company exhibited their usual liberality in reducing the fare of all those attending the Convention who came by their boats.

The Oneida Disaster

THE STORY OF A SURVIVOR—A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE—INDIGNATION AT THE CONDUCT OF THE BOMBAY CAPTAIN.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—The following are interesting extracts from a private letter from Surgeon James Suddard, of the Oneida, to his father, Rev. Wm. Suddard, D. D., of this city, dated Yokohama, Jan. 31:

We left Yokohama at 5 P. M., on the 24th, and at 6:45 were run into by the Bombay on the starboard quarter, the whole of which was carried away. She struck us full with her sharp iron stem, and cut everything off as with a chisel. The wheel, steering gear, spanking boom and gaff and poop cabin were all carried away, and in fifteen minutes she sank in fourteen fathoms of water, and out of a personnel of twenty-five officers and 150 men, nine officers and fifty-four men are to tell the tale.

The wardroom dinner was just finishing at the moment of the collision. It seemed to me as if the whole side of the ship was coming bodily in on the dinner table. We all rushed on deck immediately; everything was in the greatest confusion. As I stepped over the hatch combing I saw a large steamer just leaving us. She was hailed by our executive officer, and requested to stay by us, but as far as I could judge, they steamed away as fast as they could go. I walked aft on the quarter deck, and saw that everything was smashed to pieces. I then looked over the quarter and saw the extent of the damage. I believed then that the ship would go down in two minutes, and rapidly concluded that every one must look out for himself.

As I realized the position I noticed that the wardroom boat, which hung at the port quarter, was manned by twelve or fourteen men. I then jumped on the rail and asked if an officer was in charge of the boat. The men said "no," and seeing who I was, they said, "Jump in, doctor," and seizing hold of me, two or three dragged me into the boat. I at once took charge, ordered a man at each fall to lower when ordered, having first cut all the fastenings with knives. We stayed thus until within three or four minutes of the ship's going down. During this time the boat swam, and two or three men got into the boat, making the whole number seventeen. We were still hanging at the davits when the ship began [illegible] in that peculiar way which precedes foundering, and the boat was dashed against the side of the vessel, threatening to dash her in pieces. I looked on the deck and saw no one abaft the mainmast, and gave the order to lower away and hang by the falls. The fall got jammed and had to be cut away with a knife. Had we been three minutes longer at the davits it would have been too late, as she went down like a shot after starting, and the suction would have carried our boat down with the wreck.

I may mention here that when the boat was brought up to the Oneida she nearly sank alongside, and on examination it was found that seven pieces were broken on her starboard side and one of the planks was knocked an inch out of place.

It must have been done by striking the side of the ship, and convinces me that we could not have saved any more in our boat, as she would have filled and gone down with a heavier load. As the boatswain cut the fall a junk was seen, or as by order all [illegible] We started for her, intending to bring her alongside if possible and save life. [illegible] under sail, however, and going free, she [illegible] left us, and in about two or three minutes we gave it up, and on turning to go back to the ship found she had disappeared. We pulled to where we thought she had been, but seeing and hearing nothing, finally headed for shore, and landed about [illegible] I at once went up to a Japanese house, engaged three guides, and started off for Yokohama, twenty-five to thirty miles distant. We crossed five mountains on the way, and had the most fatiguing tramp you can imagine. We arrived at Yokohama at six o'clock in the morning of the [illegible] where I spread the news, and sent down assistance to the wreck. The vessel was found, but [illegible] yet.

The English [illegible] Court is investigating [illegible] the officers of the Bombay [illegible] been examined. Our turn will come to-morrow. Mr. [illegible] the American Minister, is conducting [illegible] on our behalf. You will know [illegible] the next Pacific mail, due in San Francisco [illegible] March [illegible] I landed on shore in undress uniform, without a cap, and only saved my [illegible] I have been very much [illegible] the occurrence and subsequent fatigue, but am now much better and begin to feel like myself. [illegible] Yokohama has been extremely kind to the survivors.

The feeling against the Captain of the Bombay for [illegible] is intense, and if the Court attempts to whitewash him violence may be attempted. No vessel that has ever been in eastern waters was so popular as the Oneida. Even the English officers say they would rather the misfortune had happened to one of their own vessels. Twelve officers eating dinner at the time of the [illegible] I am the only one left."

FRIDAY MORNING MARCH 25 1870

A Reproach to Oregon

Our dispatches from Albany published terday indicated that the repudiators had ntrol of the Democratic Convention Later counts, with the platform itself confirm s There was a large majority in the nvention for direct repudiation Some jected, however, entirely on considerations policy, and the eighth resolution was so orded as to express in a roundabout way hat these few deemed it imprudent to deare openly. Much of the platform consts of the usual buncombe and stock hrases of the party. Its salient feature is pudiation

It is true that an attempt is made to hide his in a mass of words, but both the inten on and the substance of repudiation are here It amounts to this, that the interest hould be paid no longer and that the prin ipal should be cut down fully one half That this is what is meant by the phrase 'equitable adjustment'' is clear, both from he language of the resolution and from the pirit of the Convention A majority want d to repudiate the whole debt outright, but n deference to the minority consented to put in a resolution to repudiate the whole interest and half the principal But this did not mend the matter, for the attack on the public credit and national honor is the same outrage and infamy in the one case that it would have been in the other

We had expected the usual clap traps about the "inferior races," "military usurpation," "violations of the Constitution," and all that sort of thing. No Democratic platform can be made without such padding. We had even expected a fulmination against the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, and should not have been surprised if the Thirteenth Amendment had come in for similar objurgation. But we could not believe that the Democratic party, with all its folly, could perpetrate a piece of folly so criminal as this official declaration for repudiation and against the honor and well-being of the country Can men realize what they are doing when they thus trifle with the greatest things? Granting that the bonds were purchased with greenbacks when greenbacks were greatly depreciated, what can be done about it now? Those bonds are not in the hands of the original purchasers They have gone into the markets of the world and are changing hands, to the amount of millions, almost every day. They have been purchased for a valuable consideration on the faith of the United States, and now the Democratic party says to these innocent holders of Government bonds, bought at the high figures they now command in the market, that the interest shall be paid no longer and half the principal shall be cut off. Could any baseness exceed this? It matters not that the Democratic party in this State have no power to carry out their wishes, the intention is the same, and should brand with infamy the party that would even hint at, much more that would openly propose, a transaction so dishonorable.

We have nothing to say at present of the candidates who stand on this platform. Such a platform should sink any candidate, whatever his personal reputation, into political obscurity forever.

This is by far the most direct and undisguised assault that has been made on the public credit in any State of the Union. Oregon,—no, not Oregon, but the Democratic party of Oregon,—has achieved the bad distinction of taking the lead in this most dishonorable policy. If our State endorses it, she will become an object of reproach not only throughout the nation, but in other lands than our own. What a record this for a young State, just beginning a hopeful career, and desirous of attracting population and capital within her borders! People of Oregon, what say you?

Craven and Faithless.

Just at the present time, when the great railroad era is upon us; when the public mind is more than ever in the history of our country engrossed with the subjects of railroads and Government aid thereto, when even the Democracy of the East is striving to make a distinctive issue on the policy of land grants in aid of railroads, it is significant that the Democratic State Convention of Oregon has made a platform in which no allusion whatever is made to this the paramount interest of this State and of the Pacific coast. The Democracy of Oregon has no word to say in favor of the Northern Pacific railroad; the Oregon and California railroad; the Oregon and Puget Sound railroad, nor the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville railroad. It has no breath, after its pages of trite twaddle about "bloated bondholders" and "oppressed tax-payers," "benighted negroes" and "semi-barbarous Chinamen," to spend in behalf of enterprises which alone can develop the resources of our country and lead it up to wealth and power. It is clear that if the voice of the people of Oregon is to be heard at all on the floors of Congress or elsewhere, in favor of help, that voice must be uttered alone by the Republican party and its representatives The Democracy of the East is opposed to giving us aid for public internal improvements, and the party of this State is too craven to utter a single word It is wholly faithless to the people, it now remains to be seen if the people will be faithless enough to themselves to place their interests in its hands.

Political Parties.

It is a mistaken view to suppose that political parties take their form solely with reference to the current "issues of the day" Under such a view no one could account for the fact that men so often look upon the same measure in a widely different light Political parties rather have their origin in the difference that exists in the natures of men The division of the people into parties takes place in obedience to the profoundest tendencies of human nature. In general men attach themselves to this party or that as the constitution of their minds impels them They perceive intuitively what party represents aims and ideas that they can sympathize with and are attracted to that party accordingly The man whose nature is hopeful, who has large faith in his kind, who believes in the steady progress of the human race, and who is so constituted as to look on the most promising side of every matter and not see in every new movement fresh danger and certain disaster, will naturally take his place with one party, while the man who is the direct opposite of this will naturally go to the other Thus while the so called "issues of the day" may have something to do in a few cases in deciding persons to go for a time with one party or the other, they do not at all account for the general division of the people into political parties That division is based on much wider and deeper principles

Land Grants Again

Once more the Herald comes up but very feebly on the subject of land grants It cites a telegraphic report of a resolution recently adopted by the House, declaring that the policy of land grants to corporations ought to be discontinued and asks "Will the OREGONIAN note the evidence which refutes its proposition to make a party question of opposition to further land grants?" Now this resolution which the House has adopted is clearly not a resolution against such grants as that provided for in the Portland Astoria and McMinnville bill which all the Democratic Senators opposed but it is a resolution against the continuance of the old policy by which grants were made without requiring the lands to be sold at low prices to actual settlers Mr Julian Chairman of the House Committee on public lands, has always expressed his willingness to report any bill to aid a necessary railroad, containing this provision requiring the lands to be sold to settlers at low prices Therefore we have every reason to believe that this bill will pass the House as it has passed the Senate But the Democrats in Congress oppose grants even in this form, and the Herald justifies their opposition It cannot be denied or concealed that, on the occasion mentioned, opposition to further land grants was a party question in the Senate, the Republicans going for and the Democrats against them We expect to see the same thing developed hereafter in the House

Editorial Notes

A Democratic paper hopes that no forcible resistance to the Fifteenth Amendment will be attempted in Oregon The very climax of prudence! Never yet was there any virtue like necessity

The repudiation Democracy of Oregon have accomplished a result for which they have long been toiling They have foisted their ideas into the Democratic platform. Now it is Oregon's turn to repudiate them

The Knights of the Horny Hand have been utterly ignored by the Democratic Convention That devoted band of brothers "did'nt get a snoot full," as the phrase elegantly hath it, and their leader, who almost alone has tilted against the Mongolian host, has no reward for the dangers he has braved, and is about to return, sans hope, sans honors, sans everything. The sacrifice is made and Col Chapman has fallen. Who will care for the poor, feeble, helpless American workingman now?

When J. T. Hembree of Yamhill was in Washington county a short time ago looking for sheep to take to luxuriant Yamhill pastures, he fell in with a customer on Scoggins' place that he thought would suit him, but who proved to be a decidedly tough customer The following colloquy took place Hembree "I want a man to take a farm I have in Yamhill And I may as well say at once that I want none but a Democrat, and he must be there by the first of March" Tough Customer—"You are a Democrat, then, and have a farm to rent in Yamhill?" Hembree—"Yes." Tough Customer—"I am a Democrat too, but I have been renting a farm of a Democrat here, and he is a little the meanest man I have had anything to do with. I guess I don't want any more Democratic farms!" Exit Hembree, to search for "sheep" in fresh fields and pastures new.

POLITICAL NOTES

The Rhode Island Senate has adopted resolutions calling a convention to revise the State Constitution, the delegates to be elected Aug 8 and the Convention to meet Sept. 6 The delegates are to be elected by citizens of the United States who have resided two years in the State"

John Campbell, the principal speaker at the meeting of the Democratic Association of Pennsylvania, held lately in Philadelphia, insisted that the Democracy, to succeed, must recognize the importance of the colored vote, and nominate Salmon P Chase for President in 1872

It is hardly more surprising to see Hiram Revels of Mississippi figuring in the Senate than to see Dred Scott of Missouri figuring there. Senator Vickers dragged in Dred one day recently as a proof that Hiram should be kept out. The same thing had been done the day before by Senator Saulsbury Both of the gentlemen seem to have overlooked the fact that Dred Scott is a dead African, while Hiram Revels is a live American citizen

On the morning after the election in New Hampshire the New York Herald said The verdict of New Hampshire is an endorsement of Gen Grant's administration As in the initial race for the grand sweepstakes in 1868, New Hampshire in leading off with Grant, gave the Republicans the inside track and the lead which they held throughout, so now, in placing themselves upon the platform of Grant's administration, the New Hampshire Republicans have shown their party throughout the country how to win

Peter B Sweeny is the grand chief of Tammany The New York World, which is making vigorous war on the Tammany Ring, says that Peter B. Sweeny, as City Chamberlain and County Treasurer, receives a yearly salary larger than the aggregate salaries of the Governor, Comptroller and Secretary of State Peter B Sweeny also has received, plus his salary for five minutes' labor in drawing one check in 1868, and another in 1869 the following sums In 1868, $46,726 91 in 1869, 36,318 39 This is a comparatively light matter, but it will do for the present If the World perseveres in this direction, there is no doubt but it will hit the mark soon The field is a rich one and the game abundant

Supreme Court Decision.

WASHINGTON, March 22 —A decision was rendered in the Supreme Court to-day in the case of John S Frisbie against Levy Whitney. This was an appeal from the Supreme Court of the District of California. The Court below confirmed the pre-emption title set up by Whitney under the act of 1841 and subsequent acts in respect to certain lands in California, finding that he had complied with the requirements of the law, and that he had equally sustained his claim Frisbie brought the case here contending that the legal title is in him under the act of 1863 by patent from the United States. The questions were of fact resting upon the construction of acts by Congress, and the Supreme Court finds that by a proper construction of those acts, the title is in Frisbie and not Whitney, notwitstanding any cultivation and improvements made by the latter Under pre emption acts the rights of a claimant to public lands, it is said by Justice Miller, who delivered the opinion, are measured by acts of Congress in respect thereto, and not by acts or omissions of the claimant. A question of jurisdiction was also presented, it being argued that the Courts of the District of Columbia had no authority in the matter The decision is for the appellant, and the judgment of the Court below is reversed and the cause returned with directions to dismiss the bill.

LONDON March 23 In the House of Lords last evening the Coinage bill passed through the Committee and the Consolidated Fund bill was read a second time Adjourned

Lord Claude Hamilton charged the Liberals, in their action with having uniformly promoted agitation on the Irish question, in order to proscribe coercive measures Wheely held that popery was the author of all the Irish disorders Bryan, of Killarney, objected to the powers intrusted to local magistrates as tyrannical and dangerous Fortesque, Secretary for Ireland denied that the government had abdicated its functions in Ireland or encouraged illusions as had been charged. He was confident the power now asked would restore order He discriminated between Fenianism and agrarianism The criminal results were the same, but he thought the acts themselves different The Government acted only under a sense of the danger of a crisis yet it did not venture upon a premature and inadequate proscription, because heretofore it had been without assistance from abroad He did not mean the American people, who had greater reason for complaint with England for exporting to them a multitude of malcontents so restive under all restraints that it was good policy to isolate a class committing agrarian and political violence, and draw a moral strength to the Government by warning from it the disaffected and the sympathies of a class passively sympathizing with the assassins Wise and liberal legislation only could achieve this The process was slow and difficult, but effective Gladstone closed the debate He apologized for leaving the conduct of the discussion to the Irish Secretary but thought that official, perhaps, was the proper person He was sorry to say the discussion might be classified under these heads 1st—criticism of the bill itself, 2d—criticism of the Government, 3rd—criticism on introducing the bill The state of Ireland, so far as ordinary crime was concerned, was satisfactory Agrarianism, however, was rampant He took this occasion to deny the responsibility of much that has been attributed to him His sentiments toward Ireland have been misrepresented He admitted the injustice of legislating for exceptional cases, but it was wrong longer to withhold law of reform and a strong sense of its necessity alone prompted the present measure Its provisions were strong —he hoped they would be effectual If so, evil would soon vanish and Parliament might resume that beneficial legislation on which alone it was safe to build permanent hopes for the future The House then divided and the bill passed, 425 against 13.

A NEW POWDER MAGAZINE The Evening Com we learn that the parties who have built an powder magazine in Ea contemplate the erection of a new Portland to be constructed of brick of building sufficient to store away any desired quan capacity of the explosive article and is to be erecte near the river bank along the Macadamized road in the vicinity of what is known as the brick yard The wooden frame of the build ing is already being placed in condition, and the foundation will be laid followed by the masonry work as soon as spring shall have fairly opened This is a move sanctioned alike by the dictates of precaution and safety It has frequently been urged that the present rather exposed condition of the one across the river and its proximity to the almost daily passing locomotive renders its continuance as a depository for powder to say the least hazardous and to allow the already accumulated stores to remain there, only a more invite an explosion with all its attendant liabil ties to life and limb Security of personal prop erty to the several owners and public safety re quire that such a dangerous receptacle as powder magazine should be removed as far practicable from all liabilities of fire, and the proposed building promises, both from the char acter of its materials and its distance from the city to include these precautionary conditions

SILVER PALACE CARS —Persons going Eas by railroad may be benefitted by a perusal of the following from a late New York paper, concern ing so important matter Silver palace cars are very comfortable—superior in many respects to the old style passenger cars, but the effort to introduce them on the railroads of the country at the expense of the public and in violation of law is a trick upon travelers which will defeat itself We are glad to see that the Legislature propose to stop this peculiar swindle at its inception These cars are built and run at private expense by private individuals and the road companies are thus saved not only the cost of building and maintaining passenger trains, but are actually paid for the use of their rails It is therefore to the interest of railroad companies to put as many silver palace cars as possible on their roads; and in order to force passengers to use them they keep their old cars in the worst possible condition of repair and comfort. They are in many cases mere rattle traps, cold, cheerless and dangerous The charge for riding in 'silver palace cars is illegal, the proprietors know it and when a passenger refuses to pay for the privilege they take good care not to turn him out."

BETTY MENTION —The Zavistowsky sisters still continue to be the great attraction in San Francisco

PATENT EGG CARRIER —The patent egg to which we made reference a few days since has Oregon The article may be of Mr John O Connor, corner of Stark and First st We invite the attention of the pub lic to this valuable invention to O'Connor for a circular, which will give full particulars To farmers living at a distance from market, or traveling over rough roads, it is invaluable. Ho tels and boarding houses will also find it and affords the ready means of knowing they are not on hand They are manufactured in sizes of 10 15 24, 36, 48 and 72 or larger or to suit orders

SALES OF REAL ESTATE IN PORTLAND AND IN THE TOWN OF MILWAUKIE —Mr William David son, Real Estate dealer, has effected the sale of Lots No. 7 and 8, in Block No. 255, situated on the corner of Stark and Tenth streets, in this city with the house and other improvements on the same, to Mr James H Fisk And also three hundred lots, located in the town of Mil waukie, to Mr. J. W Shattuck of this city.

BEAUTIFUL SIGN —Mendendorffer has just had his Morrison street front plate glass in the highest style of the art. The lettering is after the style of glass gilding, highly and richly shaded, and is really an ornament observed by all passers The work was done by Mr. Oliver Gandill, late of San Francisco

THE FALSE PRETENSES CASE.—The person the police arrested on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, is Mr The case does not appear so aggravated as at first supposed. An examination will be made into the matter to-day before Justice Anderson.

PORT WARDEN.—Mr. Thomas Mountain has been appointed Port Warden, at this port, on ap plication signed very numerously by the leading business men.

A DULL DAY —Yesterday was emphatically the dullest day for our business that we have ever seen in Portland

WOOD UP —The late cold weather called large ly for wood, as most of the wood yards evinced by their appearance.

ALL SET —The Pony locomotive is on the track ready for business, at East Portland

OREGON.

The Polk county Republican says "The hills visible from this standpoint are beginning to put on their spring dress of green, and it will not be many days before grass can be gathered in great abundance by the grazing herds Hon. Samuel Brown has not sold the Dayton flouring mills as reported, though there were some negotiations pending

Salem items from the Statesman: Work upon the excavations for the new hotel was Wednesday The Steward on the down boat from Albany laid in an extra supply of whisky for the Democratic delegates. He however, sold none, but and to wonder when he found they had a private barrel of their own on board Mr Ramsay furnishes the following additional school statistics Total amount paid teachers during the year in Marion county, $15 371 21 average wages $40 20, amount of tax levied and collected $3,375 82; expended on school houses $145 35, value of school houses in the county, $30 040 total amount expended for school purposes $16,964 84

The Statesman says "The Corvallis stage driver brought word from Albany that Ned Turk who shot Sims in Gird's saloon, in that place last summer was arrested day before yesterday on a charge of murder Immediately after the killing, Turk was examined before a magistrate and discharged He subsequently moved Grant county from whence he returned a delegate to the Albany Convention, and was arrested immediately on his arrival Before start ing down, and while in Salem, on the way, Turk was told that he would be arrested if he at Albany but he said he was in trouble all the time and that he preferred to stand a trial rather than have it always hanging over his head"

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

From the Walla Walla Union, March 19]

INDIAN TROUBLES ON THE YAKIMA

We learn that the settlers on the Yakima have become frightened and in apprehension of an outbreak from the Indians have forted up The Indians it seems are having some trouble among themselves on religious matters a part of them are Catholics and a part Methodists each denomination thinking itself right and as a matter of course the other wrong The Indians who were favorable to the Protestant religion are very much displeased with the removal of their former Agent and preacher Rev J H Wilbur and are not in friendly disposed toward the present Agent Mr Smith but are clamorous for the restoration of Mr Wilbur as agent and teacher to them Those who are of the Catholic persuasion are very well satisfied with the way things are going and as a consequence there is great commotion among the Indians a little Siwash fanatical row They have congregated in large numbers on the Yakima and the settlers think they mean war We think there is no very great probability of an outbreak and that the gathering is more probably for the purpose of consulting among themselves, than for any hostile purpose toward the whites

CITY.

A NEW POWDER MAGAZINE.—The Evening Commercial learns that the parties who have built and who at present own the powder magazine, in East Portland, contemplate the erection of a new building. It is to be constructed of brick, of a capacity sufficient to store away any desired quantity of the explosive article, and is to be erected near the river bank, along the Macadamized road, in the vicinity of what is known as the "old brick yard." The wooden portion of the building is already being placed in condition, and the foundation will be laid, followed by the masonry work, as soon as spring shall have fairly opened. This is a move, sanctioned alike by the dictates of precaution and safety. It has frequently been urged that the present rather exposed condition of the one across the river, and its proximity to the almost daily passing locomotive, renders its [illegible] as a depository for powder, to say the least, hazardous, and to allow the already [illegible] stores to remain there, only seems to invite an explosion, with all its attendant liabilities to life and limb. Security of personal property to the several owners, and public safety, require that such a dangerous receptacle as a powder magazine should be removed as far as [illegible] from all liabilities of fire, and the proposed building promises, both from the character of its materials and its distance from the city, to include these precautionary conditions.

"SILVER PALACE CARS."—Persons going East by railroad may be benefited by a perusal of the following, from a late New York paper, concerning an important matter: "'Silver palace cars' are very comfortable—superior in many respects to the old style passenger cars; but the effort to introduce them on the railroads of the country at the expense of the public and in violation of law is a trick upon travelers which will defeat itself. We are glad to see that the Legislature proposes to stop this peculiar swindle at its inception. These cars are built and run at private expense by private individuals, and the road managers are thus saved not only the cost of building and maintaining passenger trains, but are actually paid for the use of their rails. It is therefore to the interest of railroad companies to introduce as many 'silver palace cars' as possible on their roads, and in order to force passengers to use them they keep their old cars in the worst possible condition of repair and comfort. They are, in many cases, mere rattle-traps, cold, cheerless and dangerous. The charge for riding in 'silver palace cars' is illegal; the proprietors know it, and when a passenger refuses to pay for the privilege they take good care not to turn him out."

[illegible].—The Zavistowsky sisters still continue to be the great attraction in San Francisco.

INDIAN TROUBLES ON THE YAKIMA.

We learn that the settlers on the Yakima have [illegible] frightened, and in apprehension of an [illegible] from the Indians have forted up. The Indians, it is said, are having some trouble among themselves on religious matters; a part of them Catholics and a part Methodists, each denomination thinking itself right, and, as a matter of course, the other wrong. The Indians who were favorable to the Protestant religion are very much [illegible] with the removal of their former Agent and preacher, Rev. J. H. Wilbur, and are not at all friendly disposed toward the present Agent, Mr. Smith, but are clamorous for the restoration of Mr. Wilbur as agent and teacher to them. Those who are of the Catholic persuasion are very well satisfied with the way things are now [illegible], and as a consequence there is great dissension among the Indians, a little Siwash ecclesiastical row. They have congregated in large [illegible] on the Yakima, and the settlers think [illegible] war. We think there is no very great probability of an outbreak, and that the gathering is more probably for the purpose of council [illegible] than for any hostile purposes.

CURRENT NOTES

The Chaplain of the California Senate made favorable mention in his prayers, the other morning, of the new National flags of California, which are now on exhibition there.

The New York World's Jenkins reports that at a recent fashionable ball in Washington, a lady of greatly beauty appeared in the character of the "Greek Slave." She was in full dress however.

It is claimed that Cincinnati with its environs will make an excellent show at the next Federal census. Before its late city limits were enlarged it was remarked that it had the largest percentage of population to the square mile of any city in Europe or America, and even with the additions recently made, its density is said to equal that of any city in the United States. Three hundred and fifty thousand is the figure which it is estimated Cincinnati will exhibit at the next census.

The most valuable cotton crop ever produced in the United States was worth less than $350,000,000; the average crop up to the war, for the preceding ten years, was not $330,000,000. The crop of last year—2,700,000 bales—at twenty five cents per pound, will bring about $405,000,000. The butter, cheese and milk product of the country for the same year is estimated at the value of $400,000,000. Isn't it worth while that our Oregon farmers should shape their plans for a liberal share in this vast and growing industry? With proper enterprise, we might in ten or fifteen years secure at least the one twentieth of it.

If Alexander Von Humboldt really wrote, as some say, between 3,000 and 4,000 letters a year, an immense amount, allowing for destruction, must yet remain in private hands. The letters to Bunsen, which have appeared at Leipsig are written in a different tone from the celebrated letters to Varnhagen. The volume contains many proofs of the readiness of both Humboldt and Bunsen to encourage young literary men. In the long attempt of the disciples of Hegel to exclude Schelling from the professorship which had belonged to their master, Humboldt actively opposed them, and when it was urged that experimental science would suffer detriment from the speculative treatment of nature, which was characteristic of the school of Schelling, he scouted the idea. The letters clearly disprove the monstrous charge that Humboldt was an "atheist."

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL

John C Breckinridge says the Ku klux are either editors or villains. And pray, what was Breckinridge when, being a Senator of the United States and under the obligations of an oath to support and defend the Constitution, he joined the rebellion?

The adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment will be signalized by the National Anti Slavery Standard in dropping from its title the words "Anti-slavery." It will direct its fire henceforth against the spirit of caste, the yet living offspring of slavery, and be issued as an independent journal of reform.

Harper's Weekly contains an illustration representing a smiling negro depositing in the ballot-box with one hand a vote, and brushing away with the other sundry troublesome insects labeled New York, New Jersey, California, Maryland, Kentucky, &c. Underneath appears the legend, "Shoo fly! don't bodder me!"

It is not long since a Democratic paper in New York State published a fierce article against "Radical extravagance," when the erection of a new court house was proposed, but finding the scheme to be a Democratic job, declared with equal vigor against the Republicans for opposing internal improvements. Such things have happened since the days of the deluge. They are scarcely amusing at this late day.

A good anecdote is told of Mr Revels, the new Senator from Mississippi, who lately sat by and heard himself and his race assailed by the Democrats in the Senate before he was admitted to his seat. A Republican Senator asked him if he was disturbed by the abuse of the leaders of the "white man's party." "Oh! no," said Mr. Revels, "I like it very much. It will show the colored people of America who are their friends."

Hon. Benj. F. Butler, speaking in Congress, recently, on the Georgia bill, said he intended soon to bring the condition of Tennessee to the notice of the House, that an example may be made, by a grave and solemn exercise of the power of Congress over States which, having got into the Union, undertook to oppress citizens of the United States, and to rebel against the laws and the spirit of the Constitution.

THE TRADE OF THE WEST.—The Utah Reporter, a Gentile paper published at Corinne, has, in a recent issue, an article headed, "Where shall we trade—East or West?" The tenor of this article is an inquiry as to the programme of California in regard to the trade of the coming spring, and the Reporter desires to know whether the merchants of San Francisco propose to compete with Chicago, St Louis and New York, for the prize that is within their grasp. After noting the changes that have recently taken place by the appreciation of currency, the Reporter says:

It behooves the mistress of the Pacific, and of the far East, to philosophize on the new order of things, and look this way for tribute. Corinne is six hundred miles nearer to San Francisco than to Chicago or St. Louis. During the coming summer the country north of us will call here for six thousand tons of merchandise to supply the immense demands of Montana and Idaho Territories, and the quantity required by the people of our own Territory adds largely to this. Where will these goods come from? Our merchants are men of capital and energy, and will, of course, under the laws of trade, purchase at the most favorable prices, the commodities being equal. Standing as we do on the most extreme northern point on the railroad—the gate city and supply depot of the wealthiest of the Territories—we ask the question. Will San Francisco compete with the Atlantic cities for the trade of Corinne, and through her for the trade of the North? The question of different values of money is no longer present. The common standard of dollar for dollar in whatever shape it appears, makes the race of no odds. If the Pacific at a distance of 900 miles cannot keep ahead of the Atlantic at 2,500, we shall boast no more on this slope. If San Francisco cannot remodel her market rates so as to make Chicago see "what she does it on," the world will be astonished.

THE CRUISE OF THE "ONEIDA."—This vessel, whose ill fate has just been published, left New York on a three years' cruise in May, 1867. She was destined to the Asiatic squadron, and was in command of Capt Creighton, who was subsequently relieved by Capt Williams. Up to the last calamity her voyage had been prosperous and successful. After leaving New York, she stopped first at the Cape de Verde Islands, and then made for Rio Janeiro, where Prince Alfred had just arrived in the British squadron. Here the officers of the Oneida participated in the grand ball which was given in honor of the Prince. From Rio the Oneida sailed for Cape Town, where her officers again met the Prince, and international festivities were renewed. After a few weeks delay the voyage was resumed, and the Oneida passed into the Indian Ocean and cruised along the coast of Java and Summatra, touching at Manila, and thence steering for Hongkong. Her next course was to Japan, and for more than a year she sailed from one Japanese port to another, and then was dispatched on a special mission to Siam. This having been accomplished she returned to Japan, and then made a voyage to Much Wang, on the coast of China, whence she returned to Yokohama last November. Up to this time she had cruised about 25,000 miles with great success, and with the exception of a fearful typhoon in the Indian Ocean she had seen little of the dangers of the deep. Her crew enjoyed excellent health, and less than half a dozen deaths occurred in three years. After such a pleasant experience of naval life in the Eastern seas, and, while on its homeward voyage, came the terrific scene which closes the history of the unfortunate vessel.

AFTER THE RAILROADERS.—The following, which we clip from the New York Tribune of March 7th, contains statements of great importance to railroad travelers, provided the ground taken is tenable:

"Silver palace cars" are very comfortable—superior in many respects to the old style passenger cars; but the effort to introduce them on the railroads of the country at the expense of the public and in violation of law, is a trick upon travelers which will defeat itself. We are glad to see that the Legislature proposes to stop this peculiar swindle at its inception. These cars are built and run at private expense by private individuals, and the road managers are thus saved not only the cost of building and maintaining passenger trains but are actually paid for the use of their rails. It is therefore to the interest of railroad companies to introduce as many "silver palace cars" as possible on their roads, and in order to force passengers to use them they keep their old cars in the worst possible condition of repair and comfort. They are, in many cases, mere rattle traps, cold, cheerless and dangerous. The charge for riding in "silver palace cars" is illegal; the proprietors know it, and when a passenger refuses to pay for the privilege, they take good care not to turn him out.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Any information of the whereabouts of Joseph Cook. He was formerly from Henry county, Iowa, where he has parents still living. Any information of him would be thankfully received by J. W. COOK, Ellensburg, Oregon.

You can be suited either to a Lock Stitch or Elastic Stitch Sewing Machine at the Depot of the Grover & Baker, and have the privilege of exchanging if not first suited. WM OLERKIEE & CO, Agents.

RAILROAD MATTERS are very likely to be lively this spring. The East Side Company will engage a large force of men to complete their road to Albany, and the West Side Company will, very probably, build a portion of their road in order to obtain a land grant to facilitate the building of their line to McMinnville. Kohn & Fishel are keeping up with railroad times. Their stock of spring goods coming across the continent by rail will be the largest and finest stock of Clothing ever imported to this State. Their stock in store now is offered very low to make room for large arrivals. They are manufacturing the neatest Boys' Suits and always have on hand a large stock of the same which are offered at lowest figures.

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.—Jno. A. Carr started the Gold Room with greenbacks at 80 cents. Good management has appreciated them to 90 cents. A rushing business is still done. Supply of gold inexhaustible. Hurry up the Legal Tenders. Hours of business from 6 A. M. to 12 P. M.

Irritable Invalids.

Indigestion not only affects the physical health but the dispositions and tempers of its victims. The dyspeptic becomes, too, in a measure demoralized by his sufferings. He is subject to fits of irritation, sullenness or despair, as the case may be. A preternatural sensitiveness which he cannot control, leads him to misconstrue the words and acts of those around him, and his intercourse even with those nearest and dearest to him is not unfrequently marked by exhibitions of feeling foreign to his real nature. These are the mental phenomena of the disease, for which the invalid cannot be justly held responsible, but they occasion much household discomfort. It is to the interest of the home circle, it is essential to family harmony as well as to the rescue of the principal sufferer from a state not far removed from incipient insanity, that these symptoms of mental disturbance be promptly removed. This can only be done by removing their physical cause, a derangement of the functions of the stomach and its allied viscera, the liver and the bowels. Upon these three important organs Hostetter's Stomach Bitters act simultaneously, producing a thorough and salutary change in their condition. The vegetable ingredients of which the preparation is composed are of a renovating, regulating and alterative character and the stimulant which lends activity to their remedial virtues is the purest and best that can be extracted from the most wholesome of all cereals, viz sound rye. No dyspeptic can take this genial restorative for a single week without experiencing a notable improvement in his general health. Not only will his bodily sufferings abate from day to day, but his mind will recover from its restlessness and irritability, and this happy change will manifest itself in his demeanor and to all around him.

Retrenchment!

THE NUMBER OF GROCERY STORES IN PORTland is about sixty, with an average of three men to each and about twenty of them run delivery wagons, making a total of one hundred and eighty men and twenty teams constantly employed to wait upon eight thousand people. Estimate the labor per man at three dollars per day. In one year it would amount to $197 100 and the rents, keeping of horses, taxes, licenses, etc. at three dollars per day for each store and you have $65 700 more, making a total of $262 800 annually for expenses alone. This is why the grocerymen must make their twenty per cent. or shut up shop.

Now we can supply the city with groceries with a force of twenty men and four delivery wagons, at an expense not exceeding $25 000, thereby saving $237 800 in expenses alone, which would enable us to sell goods at five per cent. profit instead of twenty, and make money. $237 800 divided among 8 000 people would give $29 [illegible] to every man, woman and child, which they could actually save by centralizing on

Rate of Wages of Farm Laborers in the United States

(F m the Boston J urnal)

R Dodge Statistician of the Department Agriculture at Washington, gives in his t monthly report the result of an investi ion f the rate of wages of farm labor in ving data from more than half the coun s in the United States—the second effort similar one having been made three years o) of the kind ever systematically attempt-

These statistics contain many facts hich must have an especial interest for riculturists as well as the political econo ist

The first investigation in 1866 developed e fact that the average rate of wages in the nited States was $26 per month without oard with board $14 60 leaving $10 50 as he average allowance for board Thirty ears ago it was estimated the payment of arm laborers was $9 per month, with board t was also shown that while the white labor- rs of this country obtained $336 the aver- ge English farm laborer received but $182 ncluding the value of all the extras and al owances, and that while our labor has been ubject to competition by millions of emi rants its rate of reward has been gradually ncreasing, and the demand for it has outrun he supply

The present investigation shows a decline n these averages, although the reduction in wages has not kept pace with the decline in prices of agricultural and nearly all other kinds of products The agricultural laborer can now obtain nearly two bushels of wheat for the labor which would pay for one bushel at the close of 1866. The average rate of wages for all farm labor, as established in this report, is $20 18 per month, without board, and with board, $15 88.

A comparison of the averages of the vari ous sections of the States shows that prices have increased at the South, on account of the cotton profits and the more general em ployment of white labor, in California they have been fully maintained the Eastern and Middle States have fallen only a trifle down the scale, while the Western States mainly confined to the pursuits of agriculture, have soonest felt the effects of the decline in the value of farm products

But a subdivision also of the Western States shows quite a difference Thus Iowa with settlements and improvements rapidly progressing, very nearly maintains the high rate of 1866. Illinois, enriched by settle- farming and pork production, stands next upon the list. Pennsylvania, aided by its [illegible] variety of industries, including manu- factures, shows about the same reduction as Illinois, while in Indiana and Ohio, where the crop of wheat was so reduced by winter- killing in 1866, and the corn by drought in 1867, a greater decline is naturally shown in wages.

Kansas and Nebraska also show a reduc- tion quite marked, but still the average rate of wages is higher than that allowed by Minne- sota, which [illegible], is attributed to the great diversity of industries enjoyed by the [illegible] States, whereas Minnesota is mainly devoted to the cultivation of one staple, viz., wheat. In Kansas, Nebraska, the Pacific States and the Rocky Mountain Territories, overland transportation, military occupancy, expeditions of hunters, explora- tions of science, railroad building, as well as mining itself, all conspire to render prosper- ous the business of agriculture, with such ef- fect that the gold digger and silver miner re- main poor, while the farmer and gardener ac- quire wealth In Nebraska, in 1866, labor obtained 35 per cent, more than average wages, and [illegible], an older State, with more agricultural competition 10 per cent, while California paid about 60 per cent above the average rates. But three years have done much toward making Kansas and Nebraska agricultural States, with a corresponding re- duction in the rate of labor. The same causes continuing, and the more distant West becoming self-sustaining, Mr Dodge avers that prices must still further recede, even below the average rate for the country, un less some portion of the population shall cease to be producers and become consumers only.

The average rate of wages for New Eng- land as compared with the Ohio Valley (Ohio, Indiana and Illinois,) is largely in favor of New England Again, the average wages of farm-labor in manufacturing districts in New England is higher than in districts of the same section where manufacturing towns are few or none at all; Which induces the sta- tistician to declare that—

"As a purely industrial consideration en- forced by the logic of these labor returns, this system of manifold variety of labor, suited to the utilization of every original product of nature, and adapted to every capacity, prefer- ence, age and sex is to be recommended to the South and West, as essential to their future growth and prosperity. Neither emigration [illegible] nor political combinations of sections can avail to avert the ultimate conse- quences of a single course of exhaustive cropping, or of failure to use the untold wealth of nature which God has scattered in rich profusion, and to employ the vari- ous capabilities of human dexterity and ingenuity, which are often left to the dis- organization and decay of idleness and dis- use."

The difference between wages with and without board is slightly less than the inves- tigation [illegible] years ago, except in the South- ern States, California and a few of the North ern States.

A CIRCUMLOCUTION OFFICE AT WASHINGTON—THE TREMENDOUS STRANDS OF RED TAPE —The "circumlocution" office practice prevails in Wash- ington to a marked extent, as narrated in the an nexed statement made by Beck of Kentucky in the House of Representatives recently Beck said that in collecting a judgment of the Court of Claims a lawyer had to go through the following devious ways.

First—Went to the Chief Clerk of the First Auditor, he stated the account and computed the interest.

Second Went to another clerk in the same office, who copied and numbered the account.

Third—Went to another clerk in the First Con troller's office, who registered in his book the num ber and amount of the account.

Fourth—Went to the Chief Clerk of the First Controller, who verified the account and the com putation of interest.

Fifth—Went to the First Controller, who signed it.

Sixth—Went back to No 3, who again veri fied it.

Seventh—Went to the Register s Clerk who copied and registered it

Eighth—Went to the Deputy Register who signed it.

Ninth—Went to the Warrant Clerk and ob tained a warrant.

Tenth—Went to West, the Chief Clerk who signed it.

Eleventh—Went to Hartley, the Assistant Sec- retary, who signed it.

Twelfth—Went to Lamb, in the Controller s office, who registered it.

Thirteenth—Went to the First Controller who signed it

Fourteenth—Went to the Register s Clerk who copied it.

Fifteenth—Went to Register Allison who signed it

Sixteenth—Went to Mann in the draft room where the draft was made

Seventeenth—Went to Tuttle Assistant Treas- urer, who signed the draft

Nineteenth—Went to Register Allison who signed the draft.

Twentieth—Went to Mann who took my re ceipt for the draft and handed it over to me.

Twenty first—Treated Mann to a whisky toddy [Loud laughter]

The Kentucky Legislature began the labors of the season by making this record upon the title page of its Journal To the honor of George Washington, the first Rebel Has there not been enough of this sort of talk? Can any sane political man in this country seriously desire to renew it? George Washington "rebelled" against a tyranny, and in order to establish a just and beneficent Government—the other "rebels" tried to found a Government based upon slavery and caste prejudices, and to overturn a political sys tem which had won the admiration and applause of the civilized world Is there no difference be- tween the two cases? Ought not every Southern man be ashamed to revive so stale bar ren and worn out a controversy? Kentucky is dishonored by her Kuklux Klans her suppress ion of free discussion by Vigilance Committees and her shameful libel on the men who fought to save the Union from being broken in pieces in the in terest of slave holders —N Y Times

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

PORTLAND, Thursday March 24 1870

G ld t day 11 [illegible] at New York

Portland leg l ender rates, [illegible]

Money is in moderate supply f r legitimate business purposes th [illegible] payments [illegible] buyers are tardy with their payments [illegible] banks have supplies in excess of the demands [illegible] of interest at [illegible] per cent per month

The aggregate of business transacted this week [illegible] far is considerably less than that of last week. This is attributable [illegible] which seems to have been [illegible] Eastern Ore gon and [illegible] The great depth [illegible] effectually [illegible] Of [illegible] orders f [illegible] that direction are held [illegible] shall disappear and the roads get d [illegible] We now reason ably expect the resumption [illegible] ne of trade with that region [illegible] two or three weeks

In DRY GOODS there [illegible] improvement to-day over any former day of the week We quote all staple articles as last week but prices are very firm HARD WARE is again very quiet after a temporary revival GROCERIES prices unchanged trade moderately active though decidedly not so good as last week CORDAGE has advanced to 20a21c and is firm at the advance LIQUORS—under advices from the East and San Francisco firm at quotations

We may remark in general in regard to the merchan dise market that prices are well maintained with a ten dency in staples to higher figures Our dealers are how ever disposed to [illegible] as long as possible without disturbing quotations, as it evidently their best policy to attract all the business of the State to this city rather than to send any portion of it away which they would do were they to mark their goods up

In regard to a matter of which Country Merchant complains in a letter published below we have to say that [illegible] It used to be the case that most wholesale dealers sold also at retail the practice has been almost altogether abandoned by all houses doing a [illegible] business [illegible] time the [illegible] —for it is generally recognized as such—will be entirely [illegible] by natural in fluences and the retail dealers will no longer have it as charge to lay against wholesalers

The produce market is more than usually dull For the last week, the receipts have been lighter than the ag gregate of any week during the year FLOUR—the stock on hand is inconsiderable and very little is coming for ward The shipments of the last month or two to San Francisco have been very large and the news from there is to the effect that the receipts from the interior of Cal ifornia have also been large during the first half of the month. Flour now goes upon a dull market and makers are indisposed to further crowd the supplies just at pres ent WHEAT—is again quiet but without change in quotations Other grains are without particular en quiry BACON—there is some inquiry for sides and hams shoulders are wanted at 1c advance, LARD—is a little higher and in good demand. EGGS and BUTTER are still plenty and prices are weak The market is quite bare of all green varieties of vegetables and they are much sought for There is a fair supply of tropical fruits and sweet potatoes, though prices are rather high Green apples in the retail market have advanced 25c per box

The receipts of domestic produce to-day were Apples, 184 bxs; Bacon, 63 cs; Dried Apples 50 hf bbls; Eggs 56 bxs; Feed 07 sks; Hides, 5 bales, Flour 4 470 qr sks; Lard 3 cs, Wheat 391 sks

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and fe male are there who are suffering out a miserable exist ence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emacia ted and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitu tions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thou sands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mer cury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pre tended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans
